E. Takes _____ and _____

4. Practical Steps

2 Tim 2:15; Heb 3:13; Heb 5:14

A. List names in circle of influence

Parents - Children (including adults) / Grandchildren

Women - Younger women/girls

Men - Faithful men

All - Fellow Christians with whom you have influence and a relationship.

B. Begin making a list of important things every Christian should know and do. (If you don't know how to start, seek out someone to teach you.) Father's especially do this so that you can teach your children. What should your children know when they leave home? As churches too we should know what we want our graduates to know by the time they finish our Sunday School.

C. Dads/Parents set up a regular time of family worship and instruction. Dad is the "pastor" of his home.

D. Others, arrange times to get together with people the Lord lays on your heart, and begin to share what you know with one another.
Eventually it may take on more formal arrangement. Talk about the Word and things of God. Challenge each other, accept correction and sharpen each other.

E. Set goals: By the end of this week I will....
