

Teen ministries at FBC consist of Sunday School as well as frequent special outings and activities. Teens are currently meeting with the adults for the Wednesday night Bible Study and Prayer Time. Even though this is not a youth-centered ministry, we believe that it is important for Christian youth to gradually assume adult-like Christian disciplines and skills which will help shape them for future leadership in their homes and churches.